

Vins de Terroirs

All our wines are sourced from small artisan growers who work sustainably, practicing organics or biodynamics in the vineyard. Much of the farming is labour-intensive, often done with horses rather than tractors and all of the picking and selection is done by hand. Yields, usually from old vines, are low. Fermentations are done with wild yeasts; with most wines unfiltered and unfinned and without the addition of sulphur dioxide and other additives.

Inside you can find a selection of winemakers who we feel really epitomise the meaning of terroir and produce wines that reflect the condition of the land and the fruit of every different vintage. Some may focus on a single grape, others a range of varieties and parcels across a region but they all trust in the purity of their fruit and its ability to produce real wine without the help of chemicals and other commercial processes.

BUBBLES

Be it Pet'Nat, Prosecco, Cava or Champagne, bubbles are not just fun, but a beautiful pairing with many dishes on the menu. A Terroirs' favourite, Pet'Nat, is actually far from being the "new kid on the block". In fact, this funky and fun sparkler dates back pre-Champagne! Long story short, the wine is bottled prior to fully completing its first fermentation, allowing carbon dioxide to be produced by the natural sugars found in the grapes.

LOIRE

One big river, the Loire, crosses the "Garden of France" to the Atlantic Ocean. This adds beautiful saline notes to the wines from the Far West of the valley. Cool climate and unpronounceable soils: Phtanites, Tuffeau, Orthogneiss, Phelspat and Schist define the region. This mosaic of Terroirs leads to complexity throughout the area, true wines of the sea and soil.

BURGUNDY & BEAUJOLAIS

Steeped in tradition with an unwavering focus on Terroir, Burgundy is considered by many to be the jewel of the wine crown in France. Since the 1990's, there has been a focus back to traditional winemaking, the ways of their grandparents. These are the wines we love at Terroirs, no over-extraction and greedy oak, just mineral purity and perfect balance.

ALSACE

Nestled on the border with Germany, yet quintessentially French. Alsatian wines are some of the most precise, mouth-watering ones. They are deep in character, crisp and clean to girthy and a little bit grungy. Sometimes sweet, always aromatic!

JURA

Some Jura winemakers age their wine under a veil of yeast (Sous-Voile). In a sherry-like state, Vin Jaune is quietly ageing under the veil for a minimum of 6 years and 3 months.

SAVOIE

Savoie is the mountainous area just south of Lac Léman (Lake Geneva) and the border with Switzerland. This region is of a jigsaw puzzle of rocky and glacial soils. Some of the best whites have a pristine, crystalline purity with exuberant acidity that skates across the tongue.

RHÔNE VALLEY

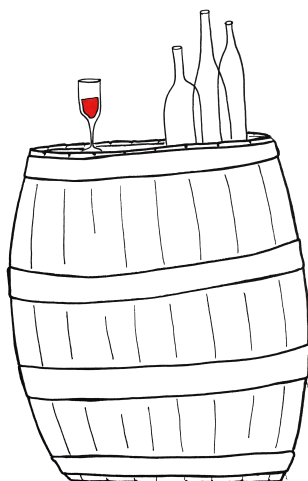

Liquid sunshine, white wines of the Rhône are soft, warm and everlasting. Baskets of apricots and peaches, with notes of spices and herbs. These wines always have a touch of the exotic and over deliver for value and character. Sunset or sunrise by the river wines....

LANGUEDOC-ROUSSILLON & SOUTHWEST

Mediterranean in their outlook, the Languedoc-Roussillon are South-facing wines. These are wines of character and spirit, proud as can be. Wines you know you're drinking. Grown from the mountains to the pristine seaside, they are high in quality and deep in flavour. Known as "France's Hidden Corner", the South-West region is tucked away between the Pyrénées mountains to the North, Spain to the south and the Atlantic Ocean to the west. Split between continental and a maritime climate, this region produces velvety wines with a more than occasional touch of acidity.

ITALY

From ancient origins to exciting modern times, Italy has always been a melting pot of wine styles and philosophy. Family affairs with strong ideals of what produce the best wine, each region battles to retain the title. No longer wines of every day drinking, Italy is producing some of the most impressive natural wines of the old world.

PORTUGAL

Snuggled on the West coast of the European continent bordering Spain, Portugal produces captivating white wines from over 250 indigenous varieties. White wines are zippy with light citrus notes up north where the weather is cooler, leading down to more savoury and rich styles of the south where the sun is king.

AUSTRIA

The game is afoot in the Austrian wine scene. Largely confined to Styria (Steirerland) and Burgenland and to a small group of like-minded passionate wine makers. They are pushing the boundaries working without sulphur, using skin contact on some wines and extended élevage for complexity. For all of these growers though, it all begins in the vineyard. Nothing is added or taken away – just the way we like it.

GERMANY

Some of the steepest vineyard slopes in the world of wine. With flavours of slate and stones, petrol and lightning... But don't worry they taste like fruit too! At one time German Rieslings were the world's most sought-after wines. Thankfully not anymore, because we can finally afford to drink them.

GEORGIA & LEBANON

Georgia is believed to be the home of winemaking, where the fertile soils of the South Caucasus are said to have been cultivated with vines over 8,000 years ago. Today Georgian winemakers retain many of the traditional methods of their forefathers, forgoing technology and making wine according to simple, tried-and-tested techniques. Lebanon, it's northern counterpart, is one of the first stops along the Phoenician trade route and dates back nearly as far for winemaking...If it ain't broke, don't fix it.

CROATIA

Just across the Adriatic Sea from Italy, we find the rugged beauty of Croatia. Boasting indigenous varieties with complicated names and spellbinding aromas of fennel, quince, honey, apricot and spice, the white wines of this location will have your head swimming in crystal waters.

2017 Piquentum Malvazija | Malvasia Istria 38

ENGLAND

The establishment of wine regions in the Kent and Surrey Downs is now bearing fruit of worth, shop local and save. Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Bacchus, Ortega and Pinot Meunier are the stars of the show producing easy-going, fresh, crisp wines.

USA

With a rich history of wine making dating from 1562 America is finally creating wines of its own identity. With the younger, new generation of wine makers leading the charge in northern California. These wines are elegant, lean and balanced...unlike some orange Americans, I mean orange wines, we know.

AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

Aussie vignerons are keen on experimenting in wine making. In the recent years organic and biodynamic wines have been increasing in popularity, following the worldwide trend. New Zealand is a popular location for it's widely famed sauvignon blancs. With climate ranges from the cooler areas of Central Otago and Canterbury to the warmer regions of Auckland, you can expect cool, crisp & adventurous.

SOUTH AFRICA

Home of some of the best World Rugby...outside of Australia... land of freedom and Californian lifestyle, South Africa is now home of some of the world most innovative winemakers. Its wine regions are going through a great deal of development and it isn't all about Stellenbosch anymore! Swartland, Elgin and others are stealing the show now, and looking at the quality of the wines, it isn't stopping soon!

CHILE

Here, winemaking is dating back to the 16th century when Spanish conquistadors brought Vitis Vinifera, the vine that all modern wines are made from, with them as they colonised the region. Like the Chilean people these wines are exotic and warm. White wines that are a true expression of place and time.

SKIN MACERATED WHITES

Don't listen to the fake news; no oranges have died in the making of these wines. Skin macerated or 'orange' wines are made in the style of a red wine, though technically 'white' as made from white grapes. Instead of pressing and removing the skins, as you would for whites, they are left on to ferment and to macerate. This ancient style of winemaking, originating from Georgia, imparts the phenols and colour pigments of the skins to the wine transforming its flavour and texture and a golden, amber or outright orange hue.

LOIRE

Reds you can take a bite out of. Round and ripe with acidity. To describe the Gamays and Cabernets (Sauvignon and Franc) from Loire as juicy is an understatement. Then there is native Pineau d'Aunis, which gives more than a generous sprinkle of white pepper. These wines leave us as happy as a pig in Schist.

BURGUNDY

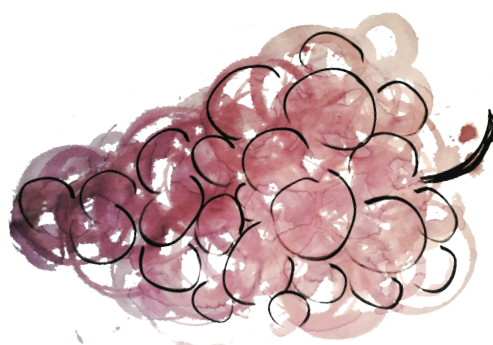

Pinot Noir in its ancestral home. But this is OUR Burgundy. Pinot Noir that tastes like Pinot Noir. Freshness and fruit where all too often there's wood and extraction. Elegant, graceful, refined to rich, full, robust. Floral, red fruits laced with spice, a gentle dusting of pepper or a lick of musty vanilla. Long lasting. Complex: neither one nor the other but all of the above. The finest of balancing acts.

JURA

Jura reds seem to creep straight from the fossils of their soils. Pale, rusted, ruby reds, mild-mannered in the glass but with a backbone of rigid purity and soaring minerality. Jura is a mix of native grapes such as Ploussard and Trousseau as well as non-local grapes like Pinot Noir and Gamay who express themselves in a much different way to what is expected. What happens in Jura stays in Jura.

SAVOIE

Savoie has a rich history in wine making. Originally cultivated by the Gallic tribe of Ancient Gaul (the Allobroges) prior to the Roman invasion. The Jason Bourne of wine grapes, Mondeuse thrives in the most adverse conditions. On scree slopes, marl and limestone soils, producing wines with a chewy cherriness.

2014 Le Vigne du Perron Persanne Mondeuse	Villebois	64

ALSACE

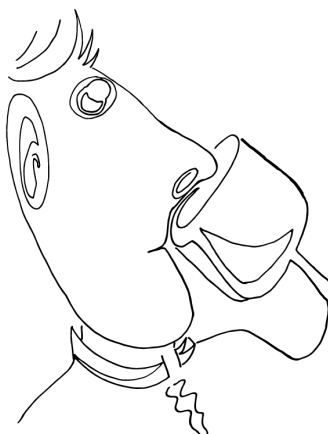

Pinot Noir, the interpretative grape, also wears a variety of faces in Alsace. On Gneiss soils it presents as aromatically lifted and floral. Where wines from vines grown on wind-blown Loess or brown iron-rich Clay soils (rot murle) tend to be deeper and more mineral.

RHÔNE VALLEY

Warm and spicy wines, reminiscent of long, slow, evenings. Hilly Northern Rhône, home to the big-boys appellations Côte-Rôtie, Saint-Joseph, Hermitage, offers Syrah at its spicy and silky best. Southern Rhône, flatter, hotter and more Mediterranean, lets Syrah play second fiddle to Grenache. Concentrated, deep and fruity. Wines are more often blends with Carignan, Mourvèdre and Cinsault throwing in handfuls of chocolate and cassis or herby olives. Wild, gamey, oozy reds. Wines for a cool breeze and a big dinner. In Provence we find the home of steep mountains, bleach-blue lagoons, wild boars and nature's music, the South-East of France offers everything you would ever hope or crave for.

BORDEAUX

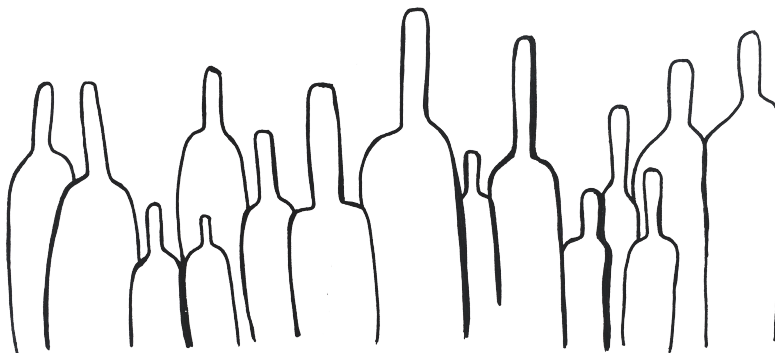

Rustic, ruddy, brash and bold. Broad-shouldered, big bellied wines. Even if you don't drink wine most people have heard of the legendary regions of Bordeaux. These are roast dinners reds, gravy-laden wine. Juniper and clove marinated. Mint, thyme and rosemary sprinkled. Big berry fruits, heavy jam and jellies. Bitter chocolate drop and licks of liquorice. Wines that are certainly a meal not snack.

2012 Château Saint Ahon Merlot & 5 other deep blends	Haut-Medoc	45

LANGUEDOC-ROUSSILLON & SOUTHWEST

Big, ballsy, chunky wines. Food wines. Feast wines. Vins de faim rather than vins de soif. Wines you can cut into and see their juices run. Wines that fill the mouth then the belly.

ITALY

Unfairly known for quantity and less for quality, in recent years Italian wine makers has been focusing on creating the best wine not making the most wine. From big, serious, grown-up wines that like to age agelessly (and do so very well) to fascinating, sun-soaked wines. The islands offers some intriguing styles , like a band that has been practising for years, Italy's new songs are much more interesting than their garage rehearsals.

SPAIN & PORTUGAL

As with much of the continent, Spain & Portugal have seen a renaissance in farming. Focusing on traditional methods that understand vineyards cannot succeed in isolation and chemical stimulation. Including the vineyard into the landscape, through craftsmanship and care, previously overlooked regions have now thrived. Here the fertile soils, give way to steep slopes whose rugged terrain and thin soil make for perfect grape-growing conditions. Lovely wines made lovingly.

AUSTRIA & GERMANY

The game is afoot in the Austrian wine scene. Largely confined to Styria (Steirerland) and Burgenland and to a small group of like-minded passionate wine makers. They are pushing the boundaries working without sulphur, using skin contact on some wines and extended élevage for complexity. For all of these growers though, it all begins in the vineyard. Germany is blessed with mild summer months leading to lower alcohol wines that are made for drinking. Nothing is added or taken away – just the way we like it.

GEORGIA & LEBANON

The country of Georgia in the Caucasus has more species of indigenous grape and a longer wine heritage than any other country in the world, and yet Georgian wines have never been widely accessible or well-known in the UK. Qvervi winemaking to Georgia's traditions, and no this is not the same as amphora. These are larger clay pots buried into the ground up to their neck, to preserve a stable temperature. Long skin macerations and therefore tannic and bold wines. Lebanon runs with the wolf of Georgia.

USA

In the late 90's, USA was known mainly for rich, heavy reds that would need to wait 15 years before they'd be ready & kicking. Nowadays we find some jewels that quench thirst, even using Beaujolais's own way of making wine!

SOUTH AMERICA

With a viticultural history dating back to the 1500's, there's no wonder South America ranks high on the charts for wine production. The sultry Malbec of Mendoza, Argentina and mouth-watering smoky País from the cool volcanic soils of Itata, Chile are merely a few examples of the richness South America wines have to offer.
